

PASCA Facilities Equipment & Materials

Sculpture Studio is equipped with the following: circular saw, jig saw, cordless drills, planer, router, drill press, compound saw, sanders, staple guns, angle grinder, and an assortment of files, hammers, wrenches, staple guns and other hand tools. Screws, nails and staples are provided by PASCA.

A portable arc-welding station is available.

There are no ceramic facilities.

Print Studio is equipped with three presses, one bed is 160 by 80cm, one bed is 90 by 50 cm, and the small press is 20 by 50 cm. Linocut, woodcut, dry point, monotype, monoprint, and collography are available. There are no acid, aquatint, screenprinting, or lithography capabilities.

Inks are water or ink-based and are the responsibility of students to purchase. Brayers, palette knives, and rulers are provided as well as a drying rack. Plexiglas, metal plates, linoleum, and other printing matrixes are the responsibility of the artist to procure.

Light table, for tracing, slides, etc is available and is 1 by 1.5 meters

For general use, there are blenders, hot plates, glue guns, irons and other like tools for mixed media experimental works. Mineral spirits are provided, as well as rags, newsprint, glass palettes, drawing boards, tables and easels.

Dark room is equipped with two enlargers, photo paper and chemicals are the responsibility of the artist.

Multimedia Equipment

Available 24/7: common use computers (Apple iMac), 1 slide/flatbed scanner, A4 laser printer (B&W)

Software on the Mac computers is: iLife, iWork, Adobe Creative Suite Master Collection, Final Cut Express, Live Type.

Available during day time and/or upon request: Minolta Bizhub multi-use copier and printer, 1 digital HD camera (Sony HVR-A1E), 1 mini-DV video camera (Canon MD-160), 3 video cameras (Samsung VP-MX20), 2 still cameras (Panasonic FZ-18, Nikon D90), 1 portable digital audio recorder (Edirol R-09 HR), 1 inkjet A2 printer (Epson 3880), 1 Sony VGA digital projector ; two Kodak 35mm Slide projectors with carousels.

Classroom Equipment

Multi-format DVD and VHS player, speakers, videoprojector and screen.

Wifi Internet access is available 24/7 to individuals who have Wifi capability on their computers.